As we stand upon the threshold
of our tomorrows,
The clock resounds a final stroke of twelve.

Life
beckons to us
"Come" . . .

As we glance back through the doorway.
Fond memories of our childhood days pass by,
And we smile as we recall our first day of school.

How time has changed us since then!

The friends who were always there to inspire us,

to help us,

and to love us will never be forgotten.

DEDICATION OF THE 1982 LION'S ROAR

The dedication of a yearbook is always very special to many people. Much time and careful consideration is put into choosing someone for this honor.

This year, the honor is given to a person who has been an exceptional friend, as well as an understanding teacher. Her many hours of hard work and patience have not gone unnoticed. Our love and many thanks go out to Mrs. Marsha Hudson, who has helped to make our high school years so memorable.

Slowly and proudly we turn as the door gently closes behind us.

The
clock ahead strikes
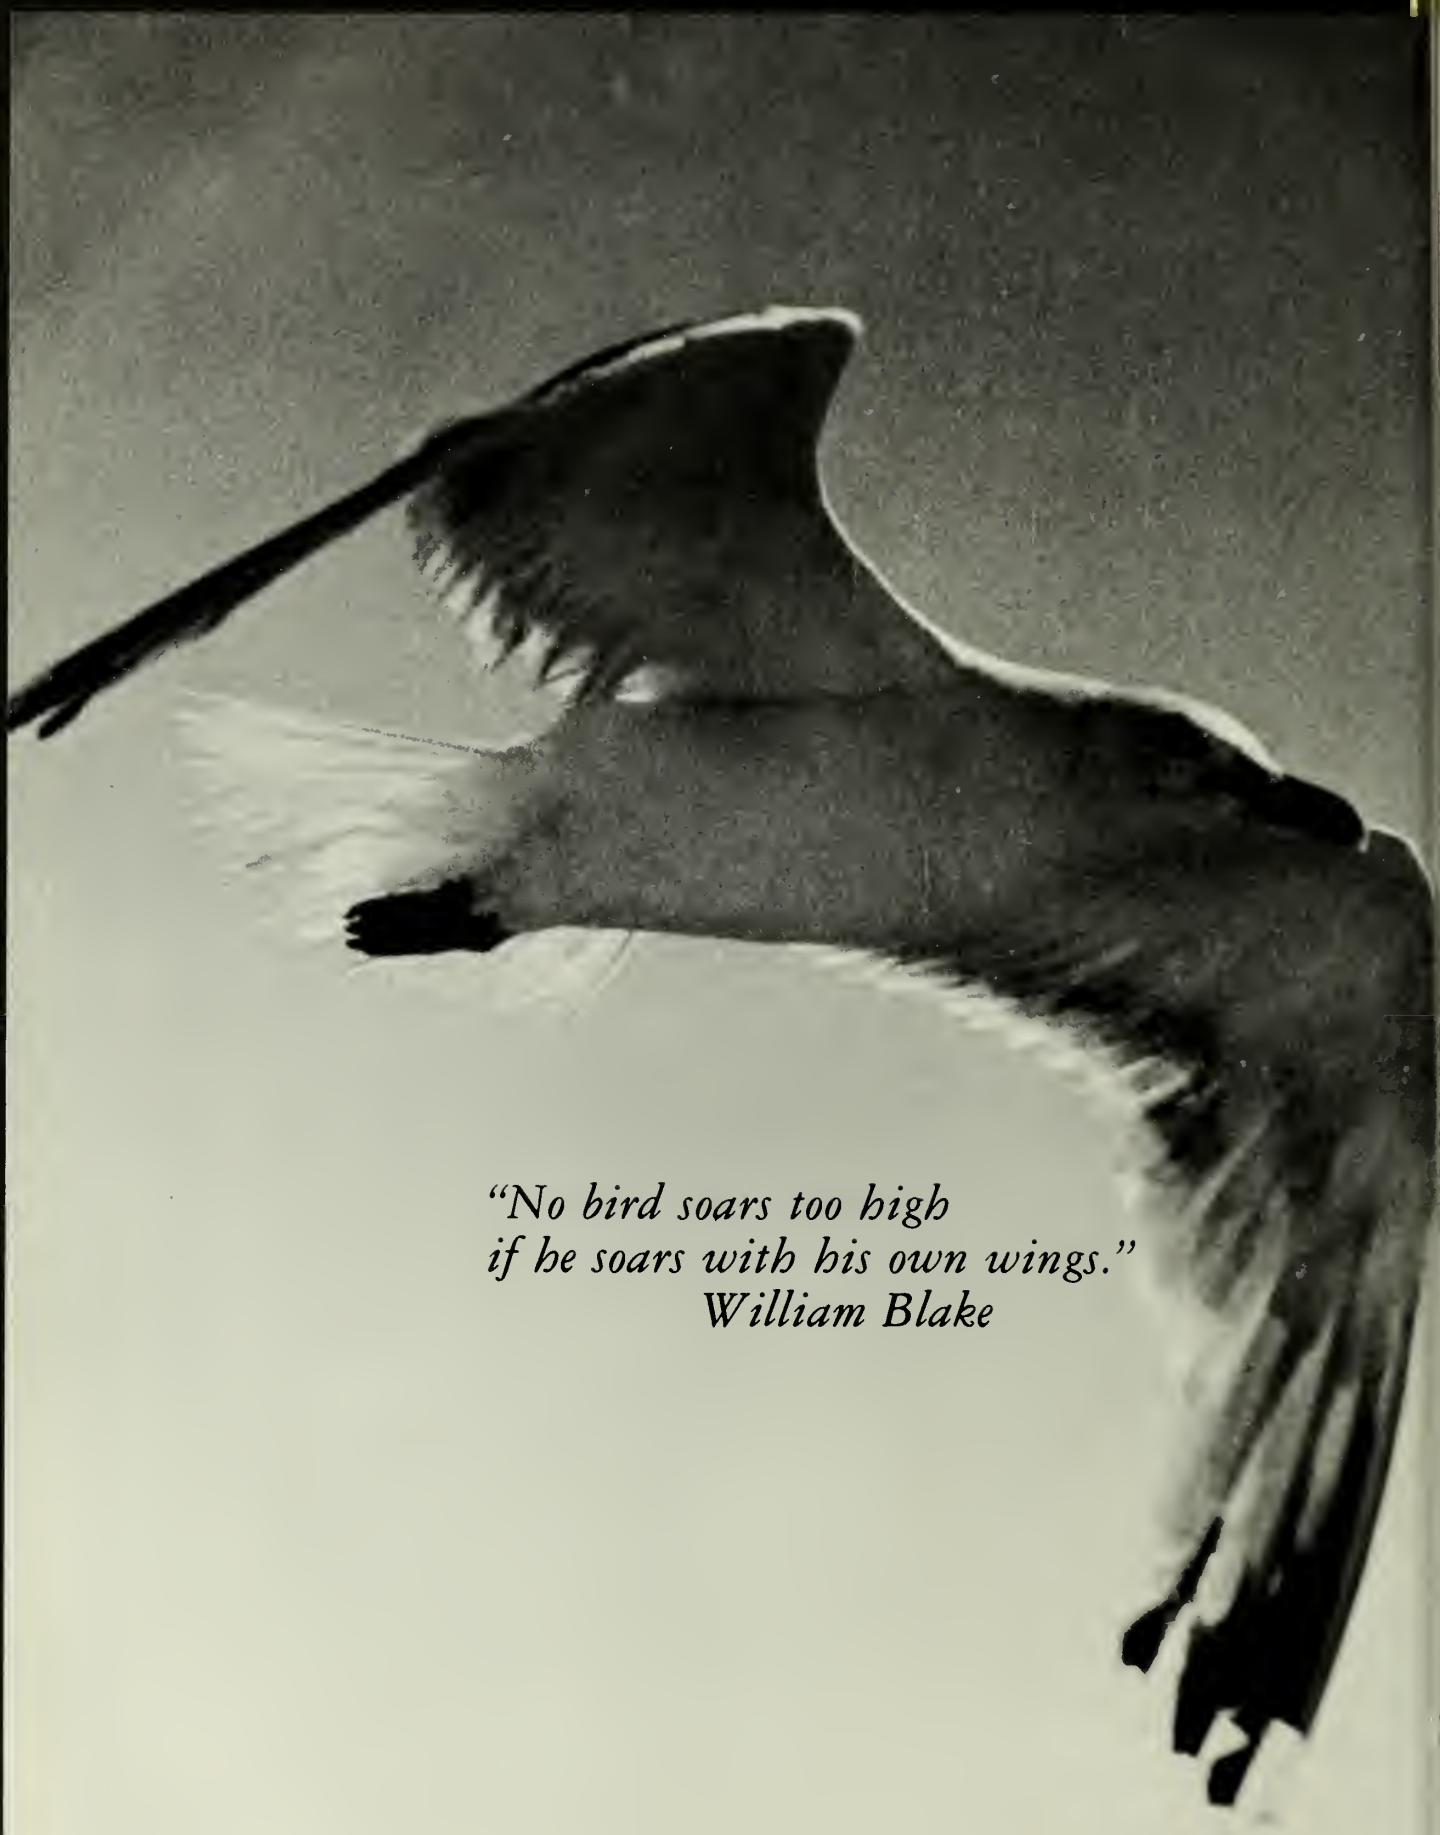
one.

Full of hope we take a step forward . . .

. . . into our new challenges of tomorrow.



"No bird soars too high
if he soars with his own wings."
William Blake

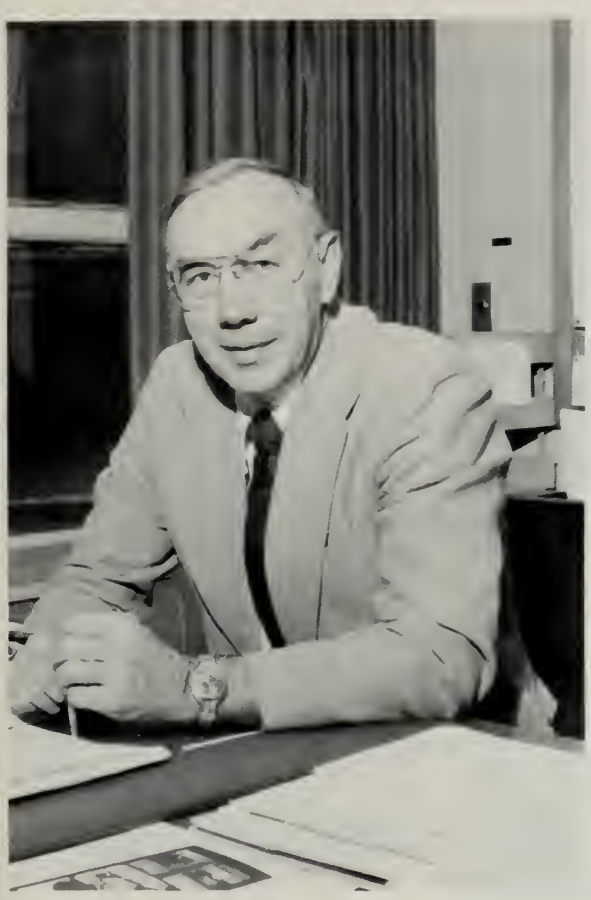
W.B.H.S. FACULTY

As you leave your high school years behind it is appropriate that you pause for a moment to reflect upon your immediate past in an effort to gain an appreciation for who you are and where you have been. Many of you in the years ahead will be successful, will find fame and fortune, and few perhaps will even leave a mark of significance upon our world. I hope, however, that you will always retain enough humility to remember the love and support of your parents when things went badly, and the expectations and discipline of your teachers who cared enough over the last twelve years to settle for nothing less than your very best.

In the years ahead, you will be called upon to return a little of what you have been so fortunate to receive. I hope, regardless of how successful or important that you become, that you will always have time for others who need you and that you will never forget those who reached out to help you as you stumbled along during your early years. Be caring and giving people, Class of '82, and you will find the kind of happiness and contentment that money can never acquire. Best wishes for happiness, health, and success throughout your lives.

Mr. Leo Sullivan
Superintendent of Schools

Mrs. Nancy Smith



TO THE CLASS OF 1982:

As you read your yearbook, you have now completed your course of studies at West Boylston Junior-Senior High School. I am sure the years have been pleasant and you will take with you fond memories and a positive attitude as you enter the next phase of your young life.

It has been a pleasant and rewarding experience for myself, the administrators, and the staff to have had you as a class. You have carried on the tradition of the classes before you by your academic achievements, participation in your class and school activities, and total involvement in the school program.

As you leave high school, you are entering a future of great promise and excitement. Also, a world with complex problems, anxiety, uncertainty, and great changes due to technological advancements. The challenges you face are real, but not insoluble. Having had the opportunity to be associated with your class, I am confident you are prepared and have the ability to face these challenges. You will mature and grow, and my greatest reward is the realization that you will succeed. On behalf of the administration and faculty, sincere best wishes to each and every one of you in your future endeavors.

1981 KAMEHAMEHA GLEE CLUB TOUR

On June 17-19, 1981, West Boylston was the host town for a group of students from the Kamehameha School System in Honolulu, Hawaii.

The students enjoyed everything from various sights in our vicinity to a trip to the Old Sturbridge Village.

On Thursday night of their three day stay, they entertained the townspeople by putting on a concert. The beautiful costumes and dancing, along with the singing, will not be forgotten for a long time.

Although their stay was short, friendships were made that will last a lifetime.

THE SENIOR BALL

"Turn the Page"

"THE MOUSE THAT ROARED"

The Class of 1982 put on their Class Play, under the direction of Mr. Steven White, the nights of December 11 & 12, 1981. The cast, with student directors Terri Beardsley and Roberta Mercurio, had a super time and the audience was well-entertained.

Row 1: S. Barakian, E. Johnson, S. Shea, J. Watkins, K. Boucher, R. Carlson, P. Cestodio, M. Colangelo. Row 2: R. Parker, C. Welburn, M. Webb, B. Teague, M. Morin, E. Pappanastos, S. The 1981 FOOTBALL team had a very disappointing season, finishing 0-7-1. The team was very dedicated, though, led by Senior Captain, Matt Colangelo, and never once gave up. It was a tough season and the Lions lost some real heartbreakers. Still they came back each week with more enthusiasm and desire to win. The Junior Varsity team compiled a record of 2-5.

Row 1: J. Bump, M. Shepard, P. Belsito, T. Papandrea, M. Schofield, M. Capone, J. Dugan. Row 2: M. Scanlon, D. Cullen, K. Openshaw, R. Priestley, M. Barakian, T. Scott, Coach Winston. Row 3: J. Borci, E. Greenough, B. Parker, J. Cranston, D. Lindberg, R. Finn, S. Welburn.

VARSITY SOCCER

Led by experienced tri-captains Dave Hall, Kevin O'Brien, and Andreas Klein, the 1981 VARSITY SOCCER team looked forward to a winning season. The very disappointing 0-14 record is rather misleading. The team played some fine soccer and lost many close games. The Junior Varsity compiled a record of 0-11-1.

Row 1: J. Kroft, A. Verdini, B. Wyatt, J. Tsagronis, D. Hudson, M. Supernor. Row 2: Coach Alley, T. Parker, S. McNeil (captain), M. Hubbard (captain), R. MacKizer (captain), M. Drake, S. McCarthy. Row 3: C. Klein, C. Boosahda, S. Stanley, B. Walker, H. Smiley, R. Kardon.

The 1981 FIELD HOCKEY team got off to a good start this Fall, but faced some very tough competition and finished the season 3-13. The team was lead by Senior Co-captains Liz Bruhn and Diane Cronin. The Junior Varsity team with tri-captains Heidi Cook, Sue Lindberg, and Michelle Flagg attained a record of 1-5-2.

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

The 1981 GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY team was a young team, having only one Senior, captain Kate Sweetman. The girls attained a record of 10-5 — placing 2nd in the league meet and 3rd overall.

BOYS' BASKET BALL

The 1981-1982 BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM, led by Senior Co-captains Eric Johnson and Doug Gray promised to be the best team since Coach Jim Diamantopoulos took over the team four years ago. The height of Doug Gray, Ernie Pappanastos, and Paul Wren combined with the outside shooting of Jimmy Watkins and Eric Johnson gave the team a balanced offense that led the team to a very successful season.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKET BALL

The 1981-1982 GIRLS' BASKETBALL team has a lot of experience and enthusiasm. Led by co-captains Liz Bruhn and Diane Cronin and Seniors Kate Sweetman and Cindy Cusanello, the Lions should have a very successful season.

Row 1: K. Sweetman, D. Cronin, E. Bruhn, C. Cusanello, M. Arsenault. Row 2: J. Faford, K. Boire, T. Bruhn, Coach Priestley, L. Buck, J. Rotti, and K. Boosahda.

When the Yearbook Committee first met last May, no one fully understood the hard work and much time we would be putting into making such a book. If it were not for the unceasing patience, determination, and dedication of our advisor, Mrs. Sharron Hubbard, our task would never have been accomplished. Mrs. Hubbard gave us the encouragement that we needed when things did not go right and also the praise that we deserved when our job was finished. Again, many thanks!!

We would also like to take this time to thank the following people for their hard work on the 1982 Lion's Roar:
Alison Ackert, Divider Pages and Cover, Irene Desroches, Mary Fulginiti, and Patty Fallon, Underclass section, Matt Heintzelman and Matt Colangelo, Advertising, Terri Bahn, Prologue Poem, and Robin Bagdis, Kristin Knoebber, Sharon Murphy, Susan Lindberg, and Liisa Tarkianin, Typing.
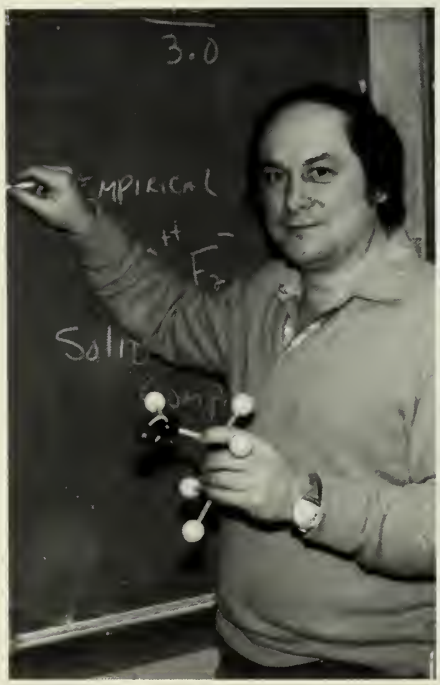
Again, many thanks for a job well done.



When one first looks at a yearbook, they do not think of the hard work and exceptional amount of time that has gone into producing it.
Without the efforts and expertise of Mr. Edward Bouvier, Matt Lavoie, and Mr. Winthrop Handy, our task could never have been completed.
Their many hours of not only taking pictures, but also spending late nights in the darkroom making sure that everything was just perfect, have not gone unnoticed.
Many thanks to all of you who have made the 1982 Lion's Roar so special.

When he was first little,
the rules of the classroom were a tolerated burden.

Then the hands of time moved
and he "matured."
He began to realize his full potential —
and judge,
too harshly,
the failings of others.

His thoughts of the unlimited spectrum
of careers open to him
led him to ridicule
his more strict instructors, pridelessly stranded in a town
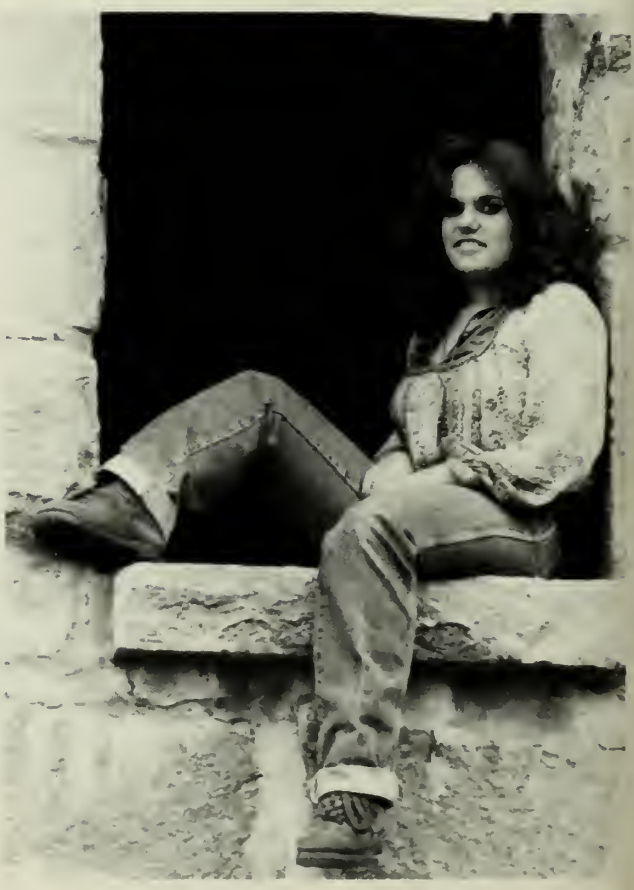
no one knew.



When the hands of time again
move
he will look back from his career of choice and,
perhaps,
acknowledge those anonymous
teachers,
whom students thanked with resentment,
as the most noble of all.
